Summary

Lagoon's 380 series is the ideal choice for small crews looking for a high-performance, comfortable multihull. This series features all the strengths that have contributed to the success of Lagoon catamarans.

The deck layout of the Lagoon 380 has been designed to offer the most pleasant living experience on board. It is distinguished by its simplicity and ease of movement, offering boaters safe and easy navigation. Whether moving from one area to another or enjoying the panorama from the deck, the Lagoon 380's deck layout meets every expectation.

A remarkable feature of the Lagoon 380 is the clever optimization of the aft skirts, facilitating access to the sea and the auxiliary craft. This allows yachtsmen to take full advantage of swimming, anchoring and marina stops. The aft skirts offer practical, secure access, making it easier to relax and enjoy leisure time at sea.

What's more, the Lagoon 380 offers exceptional comfort on board. Cabins are spacious and well-appointed, offering a private space conducive to relaxation and rest. Large windows provide an abundance of natural light, allowing yachtsmen to enjoy 360-degree panoramic views of the marine environment.

Whether for coastal sailing or longer cruises, the Lagoon 380 meets yachtsmen's expectations in terms of performance and maneuverability. Its stability and ease of handling make it a perfect choice for smaller crews or less experienced sailors.

In conclusion, the Lagoon 380 series offers a perfect combination of simplicity, comfort and performance. Its well-thought-out deck layout, easy access to the sea and the auxiliary craft, and spacious interior layout make it an ideal choice for those who want to enjoy multihull sailing to the full. Whether for coastal adventures or longer cruises, the Lagoon 380 will satisfy yachtsmen looking for comfort and pleasure at sea.
