

Isis Goedert

STEWARDESS

Isis Goedert is an experienced hostess with many years' experience in the yachting and luxury hotel industry. Having worked on board various yachts as well as in top-of-the-range villas and chalets, she has acquired invaluable expertise in welcoming and serving discerning guests.

Isis is a qualified Deckhand and holds STCW (Standards of Training, Certification, and Watchkeeping for Seafarers) and Professional Certification Yacht Staff qualifications. These qualifications attest to his technical skills and his ability to ensure the safety and well-being of passengers on board.

Isis knows how to create a warm and welcoming atmosphere for its guests. Her ability to anticipate customer needs and provide a personalised service is widely recognised. What's more, its varied experience enables it to adapt quickly to different situations and specific requirements.

Nationality

French

Date of Birth

31/05/1995

Languages

French

English

EDUCATION

Deckhand Certificate

STCW

Professional Certification Yacht Staff

What do you like to do outside work?

I'm passionate about water and board sports, such as kitesurfing, wakeboarding and foiling, as well as swimming.

What is your best sailing memory?

This is my first one-way transatlantic crossing. Setting out from Bonifacio, the voyage lasted 28 days, during which we searched for and followed the trade winds until we arrived in Martinique.

Why did you decide to do the work you do today?

This job feeds my passion for the sea and gives me the opportunity to travel.

Spirit of Ponant